

University of St Andrews

School of Management Lecture Series

”

A lecture by Professor Marcia Pally and Professor Carol Gilligan:

Why Does Patriarchy Persist? Why is Populism Persuasive?

Thursday 23 May 2019, 5pm
United College, School V

Populism fuelled the Brexit vote and also Trump's election, but why is populism persuasive? Carol Gilligan and Marcia Pally will join their questions about populism and patriarchy to ask: is populism persuasive in part because patriarchy persists? Both are fuelled by loss and in this talk Gilligan and Pally will explore how a psychology of loss plays into the politics of our time.

Professor Marcia Pally

Professor Carol Gilligan