

ST ANDREWS NETWORK FOR MEDICAL HUMANITIES INAUGURAL SYMPOSIUM

20 JANUARY 2025
PARLIAMENT HALL, ST ANDREWS

PROGRAMME

9:00-9:25 Arrivals & Coffee

9:25 Welcome from Richard Bellis and Morven Shearer

Session 1: Exhibition, Narrative, Storytelling

9:30-10:30

Emily Hanson and Billy Rough (Art History) – Phenomenal Bodies: Exploring Disability in Scottish Academic Collections

Bridget Bradley (Anthropology) – Using charcoal art to understand health in times of ecological crisis

Roxani Krystalli (International Relations) – Imagining Flourishing: Illness beyond ailing

Zoe McElhinney (Medicine) – The role of composite narratives in medical education research

10:30 Break & Coffee

Session 2: Assessing Medical Research

11:00-12:15

Mattia Fumanti (Anthropology) – Italian Physicians in the Colonial World: Mobility, Medicine, and Empire

Joseph Millum (Philosophy) – Integrating ethics into health research priority setting

Aileen Fyfe (History) – The role of journal editors in shaping research behaviour: instructions to contributors, c.1950-1980

Jane Illés (Medicine) – Dear AI, Please create a curriculum...

Ted Bergman (Modern Languages) – Legal Disputes and Medical Competency at Early Modern Spanish Universities

12:15 Lunch & Posters

ST ANDREWS NETWORK FOR MEDICAL HUMANITIES INAUGURAL SYMPOSIUM

20 JANUARY 2025
PARLIAMENT HALL, ST ANDREWS

PROGRAMME

Session 3: Medical Humanities Methods

Alison Beach and Sally Mubarak (History/Classics) – Reimagining Medieval Disability

13:15-14:15 Katrin Metsis (Medicine) – How to be a social scientist at the School of Medicine?

Bettina Bildhauer (Modern Languages) – How Medical Humanities perspectives help Critical Menstruation Studies

Enrico Galvagni (Philosophy) – Virtue-based Bioethics: Categories and Goals

14:15 Break & Coffee

Session 4: Wellbeing throughout Life

Philippa Woodcock (History) – The absence of miscarriage taboo in seventeenth-century Scottish women's letters

14:45-15:45 Chia Liu (Geography and Sustainable Development) – Old-age suicide in aging societies

Sarah Bowers (Medicine) – Integrating public advisors into palliative care research

Mary Abed Al Ahad (Geography and Sustainable Development) – Air pollution reduces the individual's life satisfaction through health impairment

15:45 Break

16:00-17:00 Keynote Public Lecture: Dr Jaipreet Viridi

